

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Barracuda Networks offers industry-leading solutions for network security with focus on enterprise firewalling, content security and data storage, protection and disaster recovery. For the extension of our team we are currently looking for a talented:

Technical Trainer EMEA (m/f)

Location: Innsbruck or Vienna

Your responsibilities

- As Technical Trainer you are responsible for trainings of various products out of Barracuda's portfolio
- Due your experience as a trainer, you could improve processes and bring new ideas and concepts
- To deliver trainings via different approaches, required by the company

Your qualifications

- Technical background in network technology and first hand experience as a trainer
- Working with people and impart knowledge
- Fluent in writing and speaking English
- Willingness to travel
- Experience of working in an international company
- Skills in basic network protocols (IP, TCP/UDP, SMTP, HTTP, etc.)
- Advantageous: Knowledge with Windows Server, Active Directory, Exchange, Radius and Linux plus knowledge in Public Cloud Infrastructures (Microsoft Azure, Amazon Web Services, Google Cloud Platform)

We offer

- Flexible working time to a degree
- A challenging position in a talented and motivated team
- Sports, free parking space and as much coffee, tea, fruit, yoghurt as you can handle
- A pleasant and international working environment

Ready for Barracuda? We are looking forward to your Online Application!

The minimum salary according is EUR 45.000,00 and will be determined based on the candidate's qualification and professional experience.

