

PASSION FOR HUMAN RESOURCES

Your mission is to build on your credibility becoming a true Human Resources Ambassador and you are also keen doing a deep dive in one of the most fascinating and fast moving branches at the interface of Software and Media, then you must consider the HR Internship for Vizrt Austria GmbH as the 'striking opportunity' for you. Vizrt Austria GmbH in Vomp, locates the regional EMEA Headquarter for all business functions. In line with the current growth strategy of the EMEA region we are looking for an

HR INTERNSHIP (m/f) EMEA Region

During your 9 months assignment you will work on a daily basis with the Head of HR EMEA and will support the delivery of value adding HR services for relevant business stakeholders across the organization. This is an excellent opportunity for a graduate - ideally with some professional experience in the field already - to kick start their career in HR.

Our expectations

- Master's degree ideally with focus on HR
- 1-2 years professional experience and Know-How of HR-core processes beneficial
- Excellent English and communication skills
- Strong ability to demonstrate personal and professional integrity
- Proactive, learn agile, self-driven, creative and results oriented

Your responsibilities

- Employer Branding and Recruiting (support selected hirings)
- Onboarding of employees
- Develop and perform internal trainings
- Special projects (e.g. EMEA Reward & Recognition Program)
- HR Operations

An exciting internship in an expanding international company with good salary and employment conditions as well as a friendly and youthful working environment with highly skilled colleagues is waiting for you. If you find this interesting do not hesitate and submit your CV and application with reference number HI10119.