

Veolia supports with more than 171.000 employees worldwide cities and companies in regards with handling of the natural resources. We offer solutions for the ecological and efficient usage of water, energy and raw materials as well as waste management that are based on the principal of recycling economy.

At our sites in Kundl & Schafteu in Tirol we are responsible for the operation, maintenance and project management of facilities regarding production, energy supply and removal of waste water of a big pharmaceutical company.

For our team located in Kundl / Schafteu in Tirol we look for a

Head QHSE - Quality & Health Safety and Environment (f/m/d)

What are your tasks?

- Manage the actions of the Site Quality, Compliance (GMP) & HSE employees to ensure compliance and harmonized approach
- Manage the efficiency of the site QHSE team to meet the expectations of the Site strategy and applicable requirements
- Responsible to implement & maintain the company ISO certified Integrated Management System (Quality, Safety and Environment) by means of continuous improvement
- Provide support to the Site & Department Managers in customer relationships by:
 - being the main contact for customer Quality (GMP compliance) & HSE site departments (regular meetings, audits, reporting and issues management)
 - supporting the management with deviations & CAPAs
- Coordinate actions related to Quality & HSE Audits (by authorities, customers, internal)
- Manage the relevant GMP documentation (SOP) and GMP related CAPAs

What do you offer?

- Degree or equivalent qualification in Quality, Environmental, Safety or Science (Chemistry, Physics, Biology et alli)
- Experience acquired in pharmaceutical industry
- Good knowledge of Quality & HSE regulations applied in pharmaceutical industry

- Working knowledge of Quality and / or HSE systems currently used in the industry
- Work experience in high quality (GMP, ISO 9001 or similar), safety oriented (OSHA 18001 or similar) environment is necessary
- Experience with application of ISO 9000 and 14000, and OHSAS 18000 standards is an advantage
- Experience with budget responsibility is an advantage
- Leadership and management skills like creating a team spirit, being proactive, committed, organized, structured and solution-oriented
- Capacity of listening and analyzing as well as good communication skills
- Strong ability to adapt to complex environments
- Fluent in English and German is mandatory, French is appreciated

What do we offer?

- A challenging position
- Attractive social benefits:
 - Variable salary component
 - Modern company pension
 - Accident insurance
 - Life insurance
 - Company canteen with reduced prices
 - Company transportation or travelling allowance
 - Christmas party, christmas voucher
 - Team events
- Education & training
- Worldwide career opportunities within the Veolia Group

For applicants from Austria we are legally required to inform about the minimum salary according to Austrian collective agreement. For this position we offer an annual gross salary of 68.549,04 on full-time basis. A higher payment is possible due to your qualification, experience and individual competencies.

Is this job catching you?

Please apply via e-mail to hr.austria@veolia.com and send your CV, cover letter and certificates, preferably within one or two documents.

Veolia Industries Austria GmbH

Corina Wallensteiner, Human Resources, +43 664 3944288

Austraße 11

6250 Kundl

Web: www.industries.veolia.com/de